REFLECTION — A GRAIN OF WHEAT MUST DIE

Each one of us is like a grain of wheat planted by God. Just as a grain of wheat must die so as to produce a harvest, we must die to self in order to bear the fruit of love. This dying to self is a gradual process and happens in little ways.

Every act of humility involves dying to pride.

Every act of courage involves dying to cowardice.

Every act of kindness involves dying to cruelty.

Every act of love involves dying to selfishness.

Thus the false self dies, and the true self, made in God's image, is born and nurtured.

It is by giving that we receive;

it is by forgiving that we are forgiven;

it is by dying that we are born to eternal life.
