About our Divine Mercy Apostolate "Acta Non Verba"

Actions not words, we are inspired by the belief that the instructions which Jesus gave to St. Faustina to spread His mercy were profound and clear in her Diary (paragraph 742)

"I demand from you deeds of mercy, you must not shrink from this or try to excuse or absolve yourself from it.

I give you three ways of exercising mercy, the first by deed, the second by word, and the third by prayer, .

In these three degrees are contained the fullness of mercy, and it is an unquestionable proof of love for Me.

By these means a soul glorifies and pays reverence to My mercy."

(Diary of Saint Faustina 742.)

"Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves.

It is by their fruits you shall know them". (Mt 7:15-20)

REFLECTION – THE FIRST CHRISTIANS.

Defending the Christians before the Emperor Hadrian,

Aristides, a non-Christian, said of them:

"These Christians love each other. They never fail to help widows.

They save orphans from those who would hurt them.

If a man has something, he gives freely to the man who has nothing.

If they see a stranger, Christians take him to their homes and treat him as a brother.

And if they hear that one of them is in jail, or persecuted for professing the name of their redeemer, they all give him what he needs.

If it is possible they bail him out.

If one of them is poor and there isn't enough to go around, they fast for several days to give him the food he needs.

We are dealing with a new kind of person.

There is something divine in them."
